ORDINANCE NO. 9414

AN ORDINANCE TO CREATE A NEW SECTION OF TITLE VII, CHAPTER 72 TO PROHIBIT BOOTING OF MOTOR VEHICLES

WHEREAS, within the borders of the City of Hammond there exist many commercial parking lots owned by private parties who choose to use “booting” to enforce parking regulations; and

WHEREAS, the City of Hammond, in the interest of public safety, health and welfare wishes to restrict the use of “booting” in the City of Hammond as vehicles “booted” cannot be moved quickly in cases of emergency, become a permanent barrier hindering public safety vehicles, a target for vandalism and theft, restrict the available parking in violation of zoning requirements for parking, and prohibit the removal of snow and debris from parking areas by becoming permanent impediments; and

WHEREAS, the Hammond Police Department is forced to frequently respond to calls for service concerning “booted” vehicles which serves as a drain on emergency services for citizens of the City of Hammond; and

WHEREAS, vehicles found to be parked illegally or parked without the consent of the property owner in commercial parking lots, may be removed from the location by means of towing, which does not create the hazard of permanently stationary vehicles in available parking area; and

THEREFORE BE IT ORDAINED by the Common Council of the City of Hammond, Indiana that Title VII, Chapter 72 of the Hammond Municipal Code is expanded as follows:

AN ORDINANCE TO CREATE A NEW SECTION OF TITLE VII, CHAPTER 72
