Hammond F.O.P. to Receive Proceeds from Beatles Fest 2014 9th annual music festival to benefit local F.O.P.

(Hammond, Indiana) – Organizers of Beatles Fest 2014 announced today that they will partner with the Hammond Fraternal Order of Police, Lodge #51, as the community organization they give back to this year with 50% of the proceeds from the food tent at Beatles Fest 2014 being donated to the F.O.P.

Taking place in the heart of Downtown Hammond, Beatles Fest hosts some of the biggest names of Beatles tribute bands to perform during the Fest.

“Nine years in, Beatles Fest has become one of the fastest-growing all-ages outdoor music festivals in Chicagoland,” said Paul Maldonado, F.O.P President. “It’s a fun, family-oriented event, and we’re gracious that the Fest would consider the Hammond F.O.P. as a worthy entity for donation.”

John Vezmar, Organizer of Beatles Fest and President of Vezmar Media Group said, “We’re thrilled to announce this partnership between Beatles Fest 2014 and the Hammond F.O.P. With the recent police officer tragedies in Gary and Indianapolis for example, we wanted to show our support and gratitude for the officers that make up our local F.O.P. in some way.”

This year’s Beatles Fest, taking place on Saturday, August 9 from 3pm to 11pm, includes a lineup of 8 bands, a beer & margarita garden, food tents, merchandise tents, a second stage just for kids featuring a magic show, a fire show, a hula hoop show and lessons, face painting, and much more. Children 10 and under get in free with a ticket-holding adult.
