Hearing – Denial of Retail Sales License to Exit 1 Tobacco, Inc. d/b/a Tobacco Superstore. Attorney John Terpstra appears with Mr. Muhammad Ahwad, business owner. City Attorney Kristina Kantar appears for the City of Hammond.

Mr. Terpstra stated his client is not affiliated with the Odtallah family that had a business at this property. Mr. Terpstra then said his client executed a lease for the property in June of 2012. Mr. Ahwad said the business will sell tobacco, rolling papers, cigars and candles. Mr. Ahwad stated the he owns the same type of business in Champaign, Tinley Park and Country Club Hills, all located in Illinois, and has never been cited at any of the location. Mr. Terpstra stated his client has made $300,000 of improvements to 7509 Calumet Avenue to comply with City ordinances as well as being properly licensed with the State of Indiana. Mr. Terpstra continued and said Mr. Ahwad is not involved in the lawsuit Mr. Odtallah has with the City of Hammond.

Ms. Kantar asked Mr. Ahwad if any of the businesses in Illinois sell fireworks as Mr. Ahwad will allow the sale of fireworks by Mr. Odtallah from May to July.

Mr. Terpstra stated Unit B will allow the sale of fireworks by Mr. Odtallah.

Ms. Kantar then said this property is taxed as one (1) unit and no Unit B, C or D units exist in Lake County records.

Ms. Kantar asked if Mr. Ahwad was aware Mr. Odtallah pled guilty to a misdemeanor in connection with this address and several citizens came the Board meeting on July 19, 2012 to air concerns about the loud music, girls dancing with signs on the street, loudspeakers being used and fireworks being lit through the night. Ms. Kantar then said that Mr. Odtallah had been cited several times at 7509 Calumet Avenue and pled guilty to a misdemeanor.

Mr. Ahwad said he would not let this occur at 7509 Calumet Avenue.

Mr. Lendi asked if Mr. Ahwad realized that he would be selling incendiary devices at the same location as fireworks are being sold.

Mr. Ahwad said he will not allow smoking at 7509 Calumet Avenue.

Ms. Kantar then asked who owns 7509 Calumet Avenue.

Mr. Terpstra said Leka Odtallah.

Ms. Kantar then asked if Leka Odtallah is the owner, how it is that Mr. Ghassan Odtallah signed the lease.

Mr. Terpstra replied that Ghassan, also known as Jesse, is an agent for Leka Odtallah. Mr. Terpstra then said that his client would prefer getting out of the lease for 7509 Calumet Avenue.

Mr. Lendi said it seems as if a fiduciary agreement exists between Mr. Odtallah and Mr. Ahwad as a lease was executed stating Mr. Odtallah would be selling fireworks at this location for a period of time.

Mr. Terpstra stated that does not constitute a fiduciary agreement.

Mr. Lendi replied the lease calls for the utility bills to be split evenly between Mr. Ahwad and Mr. Odtallah during the months he would be operating a fireworks store.

Ms. Kantar then said if 7509 Calumet Avenue was a legal two (2) unit there would be separate utilities. Ms. Kantar noted the permit states it is a one (1) unit property.

Mr. Terpstra said Mr. Ahwad wishes to operate a tobacco store and that he believes no permit to operate exists for Mr. Odtallah.
